

The water level at this site can be very shallow at times but is generally suitable for canoes, kayaks and anglers. Parking is limited and portage is required to reach the water.

Historic Lagony Bridge

This site has a one-lane concrete boat ramp which is suitable for small motorized boats as well as canoes and kayaks. Trailer parking is limited.

in this area.

More cliffs line the western shoreline in

*LeGore Bridge to Creagerstown
Bridge is about 3 miles.*

Creagerstown Bridge to Links Bridge is approximately 2.9 miles.

More rocks, ledges
and shallows here.

The river is mostly slack along this stretch.

This site is suitable for canoes and kayaks only. Boats must be lifted over an existing guardrail to reach the water. Gate closes at dark.

Millers Bridge
to LeGore Bridge is approximately 3.25 miles

It is approximately 3 miles from Devilbiss Bridge to Biggs Ford Bridge

The river meanders slowly

This site is suitable for canoes and kayaks only. Boats must be lifted over an existing guardrail to reach the water. Gate closes at dark.

Biggs Ford Bridge to Riverside Park is approximately 4.8 miles.

This site has a one-lane concrete boat ramp and a large asphalt parking lot with ample room for trailers. Shopping, restaurants and fuel are nearby.

Riverside Park to Pinecliff Park is approximately 6.2 miles.

This site is owned and operated by the National Park Service, Monocacy National Battlefield. Follow the boardwalk to water's edge. The a small asphalt parking lot is for cars only.

This site has a concrete boat ramp located near picnic pavilions and bathrooms. The asphalt parking lot has ample room for cars and trailers.

Railroad Bridge

This site is owned and operated by the National Park Service, Monocacy National Battlefield. Follow the boardwalk to water's edge. The small paved parking lot is for cars only.

Gambrell Mill to Buckstown Park is approximately 4.2 miles.

Canoes and kayaks can be launched at the northern end of the park beyond the picnic area. The shoreline is rocky and steep and can be slippery when wet. Parking for trailers is limited.

Buckystown Park to Park Mills NRMA is approximately 5.8 miles

This site is owned and operated by Maryland DNR. The concrete ramp and small paved lot are located just under the Park Mills Bridge.

Park Mills NRMA to Monocacy Boat Ramp is approximately 3.6 miles.

This site is owned and operated by the National Park Service. The concrete boat ramp and a large paved parking lot are located just above the Monocacy Aqueduct.